CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

Rushen Castle. Built of hard crystalline limestone, Castle Rushen, though certainly 500 years old, and probably much more, still shows scarcely any marks of time and weather. Robert Bruce besieged it for six months in 1313, the Earls of Derby when Kings in Man used it for their palace, and afterwards it became the island gaol, which purpose it served until 1891. The clock in the clock-room here was Queen Elizabeth's gift.
